

FLAT BROKE? How to Get Back on Your Feet, Fast!

If you've just lost your job, your savings, or your home, this book will show you the way back. First, read a special book first published back in the 1930s but still available on Amazon. Next, raise some immediate cash in one of two ways. Last but far from least, seriously consider a move to greener pastures. The author is JJ Luna, author of the best-selling book on personal privacy, HOW TO BE INVISIBLE. Luna says he has never been poor, but admits to being fired from a number of jobs when he was young, and running completely out of cash in 1949, 1953, 1974, and (hopefully for the last time!) in 1979. Losing your home or your job may be a blessing in disguise, he says, remembering his own experiences and those of his friends. Your best years may be yet to come.
