

Review: Volume 23 (University Press of Virginia Review)

An annual volume of review essays and reviews of scholarly works in English and American language and literature, this work offers the scholarly community a forum exclusively for reviews. This volume includes, amongst many others, reviews and essays by: U.C. Knoepfmacher on the rise and fall and rehabilitation of Rudyard Kipling; by Arnold Preussner on Shakespeare, theory, and history; by Peter Shillingsburg on Stollingers reading The Eve of St Agnes: The Multiples of Complex Literary Transaction; by Catherine Paul on modernism; by Timothy L. Carens on the ironies of imperial identity; and by Richard Haslam on Seamus Deane's Strange Country: Modernity and Nationhood in Irish writing Since 1790.
