

Blood, Sweat & Careers: Guide to Identifying and Linking Your Natural Abilities to the Best Jobs and Careers Using Online Government Job and Career Resources

Recognizing and developing abilities leads to individual career success and to generating a powerful economy and productive workforce. Blood, Sweat & Careers: Guide to Identifying & Linking Your Natural Abilities to the Best Jobs & Careers Using Online Government Job & Career Resources is the product of new thinking about the connection between natural abilities and careers. This career guide will help you identify your natural career abilities and link them to the right career using online government job and career resources. The good news is that everyone has unique abilities. Your bliss, passions, personality, and interests are driven by your natural abilities. Your abilities shape who you are, what you do, and how you operate. When you know, understand, and employ your natural abilities in work and life, you are doing what you love to do, being who you are, pursuing your interests, and following your passions. When people use their natural abilities, they consistently enjoy greater success, satisfaction, and fulfillment in work and life. The traditional way of thinking and talking about careers, work, and life is an outdated career decision-making model that doesn't work anymore. In the Global Age, the focus is on the journey, not the destination. The new career model takes us from naming a single future career or job destination to charting a meaningful lifelong career journey. For successful career journeys with fulfilling experiences, people have to know and understand how their natural abilities link to jobs and careers. It is indispensable for survival in the global workplace. Blood, Sweat & Careers: Guide to Identifying & Linking Your Natural Abilities to the Best Jobs & Careers Using Online Government Job & Career Resources is a life raft!
