

500 Enameled Objects: A Celebration of Color on Metal (500 Series)

The classic art of enameling is experiencing a well-deserved renaissance and its stunningly captured in this lovingly curated survey. More than 300 international contemporary artists have contributed museum-worthy pieces, which range in scale from David C. Fredas Green Slipper Brooch and Harlan W. Butts Maine Teapot to large sculptures and public art. Some of the creators take a minimalist approach, using only soft colors and matte finishes, while others exploit the materials vibrant palette and glass-like surface. The broad technical applications include everything from simple sifting and torch firing to complex cloisonne and plique-a-jour.
