

Tina The Little Lacemaker: Illustrated and Edited by the Rocky Mountain Lace Guild

When beautiful, talented, and well-educated Tina Florienz suddenly finds herself on her own, she turns to lacemaking, a skill she learned at her nurses knee, to support herself. Though tormented by the cloud of uncertainty surrounding her lineage, Tina faces lifes challenges proudly, with all the grace and propriety expected of honest and well-bred young women. A promising romance with an English lord is interrupted by the vile accusations of a jealous co-worker. When Tina is threatened with prison, it seems her only recourse is to marry her devious employer! Can Tina avoid being forced into marriage? The Rocky Mountain Lace Guilds annotated edition of this 1892 dime novel is packed with photos, illustrations and more.
